WORLD'S LIVESTOCK SHOW OPENS TODAY

10,000 Prize Winning Animals at Chicago and Agricultural Clubs Meet, Too.

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Dec. 2—The International Live Stock Exposition and Grain and Hay Show to open here today and continue for one week, will exceed all previous sessions in numbers, quality and representation of livestock, and the grain and hay displays will be the largest ever attempted. B. H. Heide, secretary-manager, says.

More than 30 of the leading agricultural organizations of the country will hold their annual conventions in connection with the show, together with the first national boys' and girls' club exposition, which meets this year as an offspring of the parent organization.

Prize winning animals, numbering approximately 10,000 are entered from virtually every state in the United States, and sections of Canada. Mr. Heide said. These represent all breeds of cattle and sheep, many of them fresh from other shows in which they had taken first awards. More than eighty percent of the first prize winners in the cattle and sheep classes of last year's show are on hand to defend their honors.

"The eastern states will be well represented especially in the draft horse classes—a feature of the 1922 show—and will emphasize the fact that the motor driven vehicles have not superseded the original motive power," Mr. Heide declared.

"Corn classes in the grain show include 2,200 samples and the wheat exhibits indicate an exciting contest for the honor of 'Wheat King'." stated Mr. Heide.

Six hundred boys and girls who were successful competitors in contests staged by farm club leaders, are eligible to attend the meeting, Mr. Heide said. The program of speakers includes some of the prominent agricultural authorities of the nation, to be interspersed with a variety of entertainment. Pure bred live stock sales will be conducted by the various breed associations.

EDUCATION WEEK BEGINS SUNDAY

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 2—Kentucky will join with the nation in the observance of Education Week which begins tomorrow and continues through December 9, according to George Colvin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The week will be known as American Education Week and public school children throughout the country will take part in various entertainments.

The slogan of the week in this state, according to Mr. Colvin, will be "A Greater and Better Kentucky Educationally." Ministers of the state have been asked to call attention to the week in their sermons tomorrow.

"How can the observance of the week be begun in a better way than by the united prayers of the people for guidance in the education of our children?" Mr. Colvin stated in a letter sent to the ministers of Kentucky.

"We are in a world crisis. No man can foresee the outcome. We can hope, pray and work, but the solution of many of our greatest problems will be left to our children. The kind and amount of education we shall give them will help or hinder. God grant that they may have the knowledge, the understanding, the courage and the conscience to acquit themselves like men."

STAMP PLEADS UNWRITTEN LAW

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 2—W. Smith Russell was branded as a home-wrecker and Mrs. Eva Stamp as a woman who was seduced from her husband by the man he later killed by witnesses introduced yesterday in Criminal Court in support of Walter P. Stamp's double-barreled defense of self-defense and the unwritten law.

Witness after witness repeated neighborhood gossip, rumors and interviews with the slattern linking the defendants former wife with Russell. The strongest of all this testimony offered by the defense in stressing the unwritten law feature of the structure fashioned to aid Stamp was given by the Rev. Robert Lee Payne, pastor of the Victory Memorial Baptist church, former pastor of the murdered man. He quoted, as coming from Russell's lips, a statement of intimacy with Mrs. Stamp, and repeated references made at Russell's funeral to the passive role played by the widow.

Stamp is being defended by Attorney Glen Haggins, R. C. Oldham and Merit O'Neal. The street corner talk and interviews related by the witnesses had been told to Stamp before the killing, each of them said. Judge A. T. Burgevin held that, regardless of the truth or falsity of the testimony that Russell and Mrs. Stamp were intimate, the fact that the stories had been told to Stamp was to be considered by the jury in support of the unwritten law defense.

SON OF PREACHER KILLS FELLOW HUNTER

Stanford, Ky., Dec. 2—Allison Conley, 37 years old, merchant, who moved here two years ago from Burdette, Ky., was killed accidentally Thursday while out hunting, when the shotgun of Ralph Arnold, 13, was discharged as the youth was discharging a briar which scratched his eye. The load entered Conley's right side and tore through the body. Two other men were in the party and Arnold was going for a bird which had been shot. Conley's widow and three small children survive. Arnold is a son of the Rev. E. K. Arnold Methodist pastor here.

Kentucky Flier Honored

Washington, Dec. 2—First Lt. Jesse O. Creech, of Lexington, has been awarded the distinguished service cross, the War Department announced today, for "extraordinary heroism in action," while serving in the army air service during the war. The citation accords this "Kentucky D'Artagnan of the air" the highest extent of praise for his war service. The Kentuckian is credited with having shot down in four enemy planes and with having emerged the victor in several air battles, although attacked by superior numbers. Creech is now advertising manager for C. F. Brower & Co. at Lexington.

PROGRESSIVE BLOC NOT POLITICAL

LaFollette Announces It Will Work This Legislation for "Interests of People."

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Dec. 2—The purpose of a new "progressive movement," inaugurated yesterday by organization of a "progressive bloc" in Congress is declared formally to be a legislative and not political in resolutions adopted today at a general conference.

Senator LaFollette, republican of Wisconsin, who with Representative Huddleston, democrat, of Alabama, called the conference under the auspices of the Peoples Legislative Service, presided over the general public gathering which was attended by a hundred members of Congress. LaFollette in opening the conference said the time appeared opportune for a progressive movement and there "seemed to be a mandate growing out of the election" for the movement to "advance the interests of the people."

PINEVILLE SUN PRAISES CLOUSE

The Pineville Sun in its article about the Madison Hi-Pineville game praised Shirley Clouse, Madison fullback, for his work in the game there. It has the following: Clouse, fullback for the visitors, had a toe also which future opponents must watch, he barely missing goals from the 36 and 44-yard lines, and in practice before the game kicking six straight from the 30-yard line. Later the Sun says this Clouse, a big rangy fullback, a deceptive runner, good kicker and long forward passer, a triple threat man, was the big works for Richmond, closely pressed by Huguley in general all-around work.

BAPTISTS ORDAIN REV. SI DING

The first native Chinese to enter the ministry in Kentucky was ordained at the Ashland Avenue Baptist church, Lexington, Thursday in the person of Si Ding, student at Georgetown College, and who has preached in Madison county a number of times.

Mr. Ding was converted to Christianity eight years ago under the ministry of Missionary Eugene Saltee and after attending the Baptist mission school at Kailung, his native province, went to Shanghai Baptist College, where he was graduated. He came to Georgetown College two years ago and will receive his A. B. degree in January. He plans to go next to Baylor University, Waco, Texas, and then to Louisville for a course at the Baptist Theological Seminary. His father is pastor of a church in his native town and Si Ding plans to return to China as an evangelist.

The ordination sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Porter, pastor of the Third Avenue Baptist church of Louisville. The ordaining council was composed of Baptist ministers of Lexington and adjacent blue grass towns.

Sells Six-Legged Sheep For $60.00

A six-legged sheep raised by Pigg Bros., at the farm near Red House, was sold in Cincinnati the other day for $600. Hugh Pigg received a letter from his brother Stehen Pigg, at Cincinnati, telling him of the sale. The strange youngster was sent there to be sold and it is understood that it will go to a circus or show as a curiosity.

The animal walked on five of its legs, the extra one that was of service being attached in front. The sixth leg did not quite touch the ground when the sheep stood up on its other five legs.

The freak was purchased by T. P. Ross & Co. of Sumter, S. C.

ELK'S DANCE ON FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3

The Elks' club room will be the scene of one of the most attractive social affairs of the winter season when on next Friday evening, December 8th, their first annual dance given under the auspices of the club will be held. The committee in charge of the affair has made extensive arrangements for this gala event and all indications point to a record attendance. Cards are now being mailed to other cities, and quite a large number have signified their intentions of being on hand. The large and commodious club rooms will be attractively decorated by the decorating committee for the occasion having as its effect the spirit of Xmas and this committee has never yet failed to put on something that is interesting. Chairman Preston Smith, who is actively in charge of the dance, would like for all those who have not secured cards to see him as it will be necessary for those who are not members of the club to have a card before being admitted. A number of local hostesses will act as patronesses and this dance is expected to be one of the most enjoyable ever given in Richmond. The lake will, of course, be admitted on card free of charge, but the gentlemen will be asked to pay $2.00 and the club only hopes to defray the expense of the dance through this charge.

"Man to Man," Harry Carey's New Picture a Thriller

A very spectacular punch is promised in the Western photoplay coming to the local theaters next Monday, "Man to Man."

It is a Universal-fewel picture with the highest type of action, elaborately staged and certainly if they used five times as much of it in one stampede scene it must be.

Stuart Paton directed the picture. He also handled the megaphone in the making of "Conflict," the recent Universal-fewel success which has gained a new army of fans for Priscilla Dean. Jackson Gregory's novel of the West and the South Seas was adapted to the needs of Harry Carey by George C. Hull. It embodies the elements of masculine characterization for the star, who impersonates a derelict from human in the dives of Tijuana, called home by the death of his father consequent to a series of thrilling adventures and his inheritance of a large Arizona ranch.

Lillian Rich has the leading feminine role, while Harold Goodwine, Alfred Allen, Charles LeMoynes, Willis Roberts, May Girard and others enact important parts.

SAYS U. S. SHOULD PREPARE FOR WAR

Secretary Weeks Says Army Hasn't Enough Officers To Handle Its Men

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Dec. 2—The present authorized regular army strength of 120,000 officers and 125,000 men is "inadequate" for national safety, and further cuts would be "inexcusable," Secretary Weeks declared today in his annual report to Congress.

"We should size the first opportunity to bring the regular army back to the proportions which are required," he said. "We can not ever again make the mistake of expecting good soldiers to rise overnight and good officers to be churned out in quantities in three months' periods."

Declaring the officer corps "really the backbone of the military system," Mr. Weeks said that security for the future must rest "upon the foundation of our leadership."

"I do not believe the enlisted men—ours is the best in the world," he continued. "It is because I appreciate them that I emphasize the need for officers to give the soldier his best opportunity to fight for his country and for his life."

"We must have officers sufficient to handle the great army of the United States. We have not these officers now."

Mr. Weeks said he was confronted, like most of his predecessors, with the necessity of appearing before a peace-loving people to urge blindly and earnestly the continued attention to their needs for defensive preparedness.

"My conclusions are not entirely welcome at this time when people have been hoping that nations had learned to avoid conflicts of force," he continued. "My conclusions are, nevertheless, that we shall ultimately prepare for such conflicts."

BASKET TOURNEY HERE NEXT WEEK

A county basketball tournament will be held in the Madison High School gymnasium in the evenings of December 7th, 8th and 9th, in which boys and girls teams will compete. Basketball teams will be sent from Waco, Union City, White Hall, Paint Lick and Kingsville in both divisions. Coach J. J. Lassiter, of Madison, offered a silver cup to the winner in each division. Madison Hi will not be represented in the tourney but it is planned for the winners to meet Madison on the Monday evening following the closing date of the tourney.

The county teams because of having to play on outdoor courts are bringing their seasons to a close. They have been playing all fall, however. It is understood that some real fast teams have been developed in both divisions. Some of the county high schools claim that they have teams that will give Madison a run for their money. This will give the Richmond fans a chance to see the talent which has been developed in the county. Large crowds are expected to turn out each night.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Dr. D. J. Williams installed this week at Boonesboro ferry a new steel motor boat which can easily take over 8 large cars each trip. It is said to be the best boat on the Kentucky river and will be a great improvement during the summer season when throngs of vehicles are waiting to get to the popular re-ort. Dr. Williams bought the boat of parties in Indiana at a cost of $4,000.

Mrs. George Weber, of College Hill, narrowly escaped serious injury Thursday morning when driving to Waco to spend the day with her sister, Miss Nannie Lekins. Her horse became frightened, upset the buggy and Mrs. Weber was thrown against a telephone pole. She sustained severe bruises about the face and head and one or two ribs were broken, but physicians say her condition is not serious.

SAFETY OF THE PERFECT
—Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will He help the evil doer.—Job 8:20.

The Louisville Times is taking a poll of members of the legislature on proposed repeal of the new Normal Schools act at an extra session. Of course an extra session would prove expensive, but it might be worth while to stop right now the tremendous expenditure that will follow establishment of these two new institutions. As the Daily Register has pointed out repeatedly and urged during the last session of the Assembly, a small part of the sums that will be required for establishment and maintenance of two new normal schools, added to the income of the present splendid institutions, will equip them to take care of all the normal students the state may furnish within the next decade or so. This is the real and only logical solution of the matter.

Premier Clemenceau says he came to America to invite discussion. Apparently there are a number of members of the Senate who have been inclined to accept the invitation.

MRS. LULA VANN
FULTON, ARK.

Suggests to Suffering Women
the Road to Health

Fulton, Arkansas.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a soreness in my side. I would suffer so badly every month from my waist down that I could not be on my feet half the time. I was not able to do my work without help. I saw your Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and gave it a fair trial. Now I am able to do my work and don't even have a headache every month. I cannot praise your Vegetable Compound enough and highly recommend it to those who have troubles like mine. I am willing for these facts to be used as a testimonial to lead all who suffer with female troubles, as I did, to the right road to health."—Mrs. LULA VANN, Box 43, Fulton, Arkansas.

It is this sort of praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, given by word of mouth and by letter, one woman to another, that should cause you to consider taking this well-known medicine, if you are troubled with such symptoms as painful periods, weak, nervous feelings, miserable pains in your back, and cannot work at certain times.

There is a woman who is so grateful and glad to be relieved from a painful and nerve-racking physical condition that she wishes to tell all sick women.

BREEZES

The song of the motorist: Sleeping tires on my ford is a matter rather grim;

It keeps my finances running on the rim.

The fashions all right in women's short skirts—we suppose.

But wouldn't she look funny in her old-fashioned half-silk hose.

A woman doesn't care so much about her husband being handsome if he'll hand some dough to her occasionally.

It's always something.

The reformers have their trouble;

No sooner had they broke

The chimneys from the habit,

Than the girls began to smoke.

There is always some person in every type of society, who bores his friends, in an effort to amuse them, by using worn-out expression such as:

You'll break your camera

The pleasure's all yours

How's your daddy

Tain't nothing else

I say she did

If it doesn't rain it will be a long dry spell

There's always room for one more.

The longer they come the worse they look.

He—(gloomily) my mind wanders.

She—(sarcastically) Oh, is that it?

I had noticed that it is always absent.

A TEACHER'S LUCK

Years ago it used to be the custom of the country folk to work out their taxes by loading the teacher, which is a hard time to time he was supplied from various quarters with food.

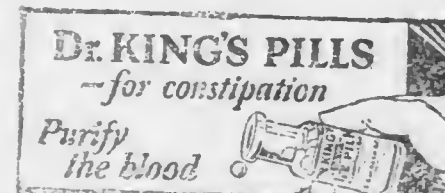

One day a boy named Elisha Anderson sought the teacher and said:

"Say teacher, my pa wants to know if you like pork?"

"Indeed, I do," was the reply.

"Say to your father that there is nothing in the way of meat I like better than pork."

Some time elapsed and there

"Purina" Made the Difference!

EQUAL in laying ability. But the hen on the right was fed a common grain ration while the other was fed Purina Chicken Chowder and Purina Hen Chow. Grains have lots of material for yolks, but far too little for whites. As they can't lay yolks only, grain-fed hens lay fewer eggs.

Purina Poultry Chows

Form a complete ration, containing material for an equal number of whites and yolks. They get the most out of your hens, and cut the feeding cost per dozen eggs.

More Eggs Guaranteed

You get your money back if Purina Chicken Chowder and Purina Hen Chow, fed as directed, don't produce more eggs than any other ration. Why should you put off a trial when we take the risk?

MONEY is a great Constructive Force

Money in the Bank makes a man feel INDEPENDENT and enables him, when he has saved enough of it, to buy into a BUSINESS.

The man who attends to business and save some money of his own earning, is the kind of a man that owners of large enterprises are looking for to interest in their business.

No man can afford NOT to bank and save a part of what he makes.
